

Johannesburg is within driving distance of three different game parks; Madikwe Game Reserve, Pilanesberg Game Reserve and Kruger National Park. Of the three, Pilanesberg is the closest to the city

WILD TIMES

An entire safari in just one day

If you've ever dreamed of rolling savannah and the unforgettable sights of lions, leopards and giraffes living free under the baking sun, why not make it a reality with a thrilling day or two-day experience? Johannesburg is within driving distance of three different game parks; Madikwe Game Reserve, Pilanesberg Game Reserve and one of Africa's largest game reserves, the world-renowned Kruger National Park.

Of the three, Pilanesberg is the closest to the city, with a two-hour drive making it ideal for a highly rewarding day experience viewing wildlife from an open-top vehicle. Felleng Tours visit all three reserves, and the owner-run company works tirelessly to offer a wide variety of other day experiences and packages, too; from Soweto's townships to a hot-air-balloon ride over the city. The Pilanesberg day tour takes in the stunning vistas of the 132,000-acre national park and its varied habitats, including vast savannah grasslands home to around 10,000 animals, including the Big Five (lion, elephant, Cape buffalo, leopard and rhinoceros) and hundreds of bird species. Your day will begin early with collection from your hotel, and an option with lunch at Pilanesberg's luxury Bakubung Bush Lodge is available.

© Rutie Prinsloo

PRICES ON REQUEST
www.fellengtours.com

Five Alive
Felleng Tours offers custom excursions
and tours into three wildlife reserves
within striking distance of Johannesburg.

